

UNIVERSITE

de Poitiers

Ladies and Gentlemen,

As part of our project, and to allow you to have a more enjoyable weekend in Poitiers, we are organizing a discovery weekend of the Vienne. We selected with care the most attractive and representative sites of our department.

This organization is part of a Marketing project conducted by Elodie GIBOYAU, André AGUEH, Ayélé DEGBOEVI, Laïla MALIKI and Sadia Awa FALL, under the responsibility of our professor Martine AGUILAR.

NB:

To guarantee the best prices, the program will only be possible with a minimum of 20 participants; and takes place over three days starting on Friday March 28th at 7:30 PM. You have a choice between Friday, Saturday and Sunday activities. If you wish, you are welcome to join us in more than one activity.

For the settlement Please contact Miss Amélie MORIN at the Tourism House of Poitiers (45 place Charles de Gaule, 86009 Poitiers. Tél: 05 49 41 46 14, email: receptif@ot-poitiers.fr)

You will find on the following pages the detail of the stay....

City of Art and History, Poitiers is nick named the city of hundred bell towers. It is an open book with 2000 years of history and paradoxically, a city strongly drawn to the future with prestigious and modern buildings.

The Futuroscope is a perfect symbol of an avant-garde city. Many leading research centres benefit from the 25000 university campus students.

In an area midway between Paris (1h27) and Bordeaux (1h30) by TGV, Poitiers is waiting for you to write its most beautiful pages...

PROGRAMME DES ACTIVITES

Friday, March 28, 2008 :

5.30 PM: Departure to downtown Poitiers by bus from the University

6.00 PM : Guided tour of the area of Saint-Hilaire included discovery of the St Hilaire's church built during the roman period.

Presentation of Blossac Park: a french park with different thematic gardens and a lot of greenery.

7.30 PM : Dinner in the restaurant Antipodes , situated in a splendid twelfth century wine cellar

11.00 PM : Off to Poitiers

The price of this day:

53,30 euros per person

It includes : Transportation by bus, dinner: wine and coffer included

Its doesn't include: Insurance and personal expenses

The area of St Hilaire

The church of ST Hilaire allowed this burg development. Indeed this church is considered by UNESCO as a world heritage site .

Friday , March 28, 2008

RESTAURANT ANTIPODES

MENU

Kir

.....

Salade de Cochets, Chèvre Chaud sur Pomme Reinette et Œuf de Caille

Ou

Mouclade vendéenne en Caquelon et Gratinée

.....

Filet de Truite en far et Grenailles en pot

Ou

Canard farci à la poitevine, mélange vert à la crème

.....

Broyé et Mûres sur une Fleurette

Ou

Grimolle servie tiède et sa Glace noisette

.....

Fromage

1/4 de vin par personne

Café

Saturday, March 29, 2008 :

9.00 AM : Departure to Chauvigny by bus, from downtown Poitiers with a stop at Beaulieu.

9.45 AM: Arrival at the Donjon square in Chauvigny to meet a local guide to discover downtown Chauvigny. (English/French). It is an unparalleled medieval site presenting the ruins of several castles. Discover the Collegiate church of Saint-Pierre and its magnificent Romanesque sculptures.

11.30 AM: Spectacle of free flying birds.

12.30 AM: Lunch at a restaurant in Chauvigny.

2.00 PM: Departure to Saint-Savin.

2.30 PM : Guided tour of the Abbey of Saint-Savin.

4.00 PM : Departure to Angles sur l'Anglin.

4.30 PM : Guided tour (in English) of the village of Angles sur l'Anglin.

5.15 PM : Off to Poitiers

The price of this day is :

62,40 euros per person.

It includes : Transportation by bus, guided tour of Chauvigny, Saint-Savin and Angles sur l'Anglin , the entries to the monuments. The free, flying birds show, lunch, wine and coffee.

It does not include : insurance and personal expenses.

At the heart of the Medieval city of Chauvigny, the Giants of Heaven offer an impressive show. You will be amazed by the majestic flight of eagles and other birds.

Dominated by the remnants of a castle, the village of Angles sur Anglin is perched on the cliffs of Anglin. It is regarded as one of the most beautiful villages in France.

An absolute must of roman art, the Abbey Saint-Savin is considered by UNESCO as a world heritage site for the exceptional richness of the painted decorations that adorn this Church of the twelfth Century.

Sunday, March 30, 2008 :

9.15 AM: Departure to the Futuroscope by bus from downtown Poitiers with a stop at Beaulieu.

10.00 AM : the day will be devoted to the discovery of the Futuroscope, the European park of the image. Accompanied by a hostess you will discover the various attractions and events in the park.

12.30 PM : Lunch buffet at a restaurant in the Futuroscope.

Continue the visit of the Futuroscope

5.00 PM : Off to Poitiers.

The price of this day is :

52 euros per person

It includes : Transportation by bus, the tour (in English) of the Futuroscope Park, entry to Park, access to the various attractions and lunch, wine and coffee included.

It doesn't include : Insurance, personal expenses.

Pioneer leisure park in France, the Futuroscope was created by René Monory in the late 80's.

Since its opening to the public on May 31, 1984, with the ambitious mission to tame the Future, the Futuroscope has hosted more than 32 million visitors, making it the 2nd French recreational park.

Thrills, large format images, dazzling, performances, interactive and sensory adventures.... On a large park full of surprises, imagine you explore the world differently and have a taste of the future today having lots of fun.